

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF ISAAC PRICE AND MISS MARY POWELL.

Ceremony Performed by Rev. de Gruchy Yesterday Afternoon—Funeral of Benjamin Lloyd—Patriotic Society People at a Cake Walk—Laborer Sues to Recover Wages—Victor Ratzburg Surprised—Firemen Awaiting Their Obedience—Other Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

Isaac J. Price, of 356 North Fillmore avenue, and Miss Mary A. Powell, of 1512 Swallow street, were united in marriage at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, at the parsonage of the Jackson Street Baptist church. The couple were unattended. The bride was attired in a very becoming traveling dress of brown material. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Price left on the 1.55 Buffalo express, and upon their return will reside on South Hyde Park avenue.

The groom is a well-known member of the Scranton malleable iron, and enjoys a large circle of acquaintances. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Powell, and was for several years identified with Lewis, Reilly & Davies' shoe store. Both are very well known and their numerous friends join in extending congratulations.

PATRIOTIC ORDER OF AMERICANS. The members of Camp 33, Patriotic Order of Americans, held an enjoyable social at their rooms in Iovette hall last evening. After the business of the camp was concluded, many visitors were admitted and listened to a number of phonographic selections, given under the direction of Isaac Daniels.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Donations were received at St. Patrick's Orphanage during the month of September from the following: Rev. J. J. B. Feeley, Nicholson; Mrs. Frederick Lindner, Mrs. Melburn, Enos Flynn, Joseph Lambert, George F. McCarthy, Miss L. Langan, Miss Mary Langan, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. McNulty, the mail carriers, Clay Pipe club and Newman Maccain club.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. There will be another preliminary meeting of those interested in the organization of a new local building and loan association at Co-operative hall this evening.

Correct Fashions for This Season. Latest Fashions for Fall and Winter

A Word or Two on Prevailing Styles. Fashions change with lightning rapidity nowadays, and no more striking example of this can be found than is exemplified in our Cloak Department today. Sleeves are now plain and slender, the straps and applique work of last season have disappeared in favor of stitichings, scalloped edges etc. Big collars have also gone and the smart plain coat collars with deep notched lapels come as worthy successors. Blacks are most sought after, while buttons as a decorative feature are more in vogue than ever. Children's and misses' garments are modified after those for older people. Smart Golf Capes and mantles for elderly ladies form an important feature of this week's display.

MOTHERHOOD is woman's natural destiny. Many women are denied the happiness of children through some derangement of the generative organs. Actual barrenness is rare. Among the many triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the overcoming of cases of supposed barrenness. This great medicine is so well calculated to regulate every function of the generative organs that its efficiency is vouched for by multitudes of women.

SORROWS OF STERILITY

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I had one child which lived only six hours. The doctor said it did not have the proper nourishment while I was carrying it. I did not feel at all well during pregnancy. In time I conceived again, and thought I would write to you for advice. Words cannot express the gratitude I feel towards you for the help that your medicine was to me during this time. I felt like a new person; did my work up to the last, and was sick only a short time. My baby weighed ten pounds. He is now six weeks old and weighs sixteen pounds. Your medicine is certainly a boon in pregnancy."

MRS. FLORA COOPER, of Doyle, S. Dak., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Ever since my last child I suffered with inflammation of the womb, pains in back, left side, abdomen and groin. My head ached all the time. I could not walk across the floor without suffering intense pain. I kept getting worse, until two years ago I wrote to you for advice, and began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had not finished the first bottle before I felt better. I took four bottles, and have been strong and perfectly healthy ever since, and now have two of the nicest little girls."

evening and transacted important business. The Salvation army conducted a public sale last evening of the articles received in the harvest home festival. A neat sum was realized. Panooka tribe, Order of Red Men, will install the following officers this evening: Sachem, George W. Howells; senior sagamore, Hugh Williams; junior sagamore, Reese J. Griffith. The ladies' Foreign Missionary society of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will serve lunch and tea this afternoon and evening to the delegates at the missionary convention in Elm Park church.

Link, who claimed that Bushel became boisterous and threatened his life at his hotel on Lloyd street. He paid $10 fine. The members of the Niagara Hose company received their new uniforms yesterday afternoon. The suits are of light brown broadcloth, trimmed in blue braid and silver buttons. The company is sure to make a very attractive appearance in their uniforms in tomorrow's parade. Miss Harriet Finn is ill at her home on Providence road. Mrs. William Cousins and son, Master Handel, and Mrs. Orgie and son, of Peckville, are being entertained by Prof. and Mrs. J. Hayden Cousins of Grand street. Miss Mary Corcoran, of Hawley, is visiting Mrs. Michael Leonard, of West Market street. Miss Kate Davitt, of Leggett street, is in Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. Ambrose Mulley, of North Main avenue, has returned home after spending several weeks with friends in New York state. Rev. S. G. Reading, of Church avenue, is spending a few days in Williamsport. Last evening a large number of people assembled at St. Mary's hall to attend the concert given under the auspices of the Excelsior Hose company. The music was furnished by the Excelsior band. On Thursday evening the Keystone Literary and Dramatic club will hold a social in the Auditorium.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Beers, of Rebecca avenue, are entertaining Mrs. Ira Luckenbaugh and children, of Westport, and James Beers, of Forty Fort. George Robinson, of Washington, D. C., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lanning, of North Main avenue, returned home yesterday. Thomas Davis, of North Main avenue, will follow in which the visiting firemen will participate.

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES

One of the most skillful magicians and illusionists now before the public is Prof. Douglas, who is to appear in the Providence Auditorium on Friday evening of this week. His necromancy is in keeping with modern scientific discoveries and the public may expect a most interesting and surprising city under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the Providence Presbyterian church. The paving of East Market street was completed yesterday. The street is now one of the finest in the city. Mrs. Mary McLean died at her home on Oak street Monday night after an illness of many weeks. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her and had many friends in the circle of society in which she moved. The deceased is survived by four children. They are Kate, Charles, John and Patrick McLean, all of this city. Mrs. McCann was born in Ireland and came to this country forty years ago, most of which time she has resided in Scranton. A meeting of Local Union, No. 143, United Mine Workers of America, was held last evening at Mulhern's hall. A large number of members were present. The classes in English branches will meet tomorrow night at 7.30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, 2043 North Main avenue.

AMONG THE FIREMEN.

There is no suburb of the city more lavishly honored in the eyes of the state convention of firemen than Scranton. Nearly all of the leading hotels and principal business places present a pretty appearance. Will F. Foley, of Cedar avenue, of the Roaring Brook hotel, is the headmaster of the Century Hose company of this side. James E. Butz is caring for the Harrisburg delegation. R. C. Schaeffer, of Pittston avenue, corner of Alder street, has the Tamaqua Hose company of twenty men and a band stopping at his hotel. The Century Hose and Hose company has made all arrangements for their guests, the Goodwill Hose company, of Allentown, which is expected to arrive today. The Century Hose company held a special meeting last night for the purpose of completing all arrangements for the entertainment of the Andrew Mitchell Hose company, of Carbondale, which body will visit the Century today and tomorrow.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The funeral of the late Amelio Di Santo, who was murdered Sunday night, was held from his boarding house at No. 5 mountain yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will assemble tonight to witness the installation of its officers, chosen a week ago. Meadow Brook Washer. Pea coral sold to teams 75 cents a ton. Corner of Cedar avenue and Gibbons street.

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

MEETING OF THE SCHOOL BOARD HELD LAST NIGHT.

A Considerable Amount of Routine Business Was Transacted—Opening of the Fair of the Neptune Fire Company in Odd Fellows' Hall. Rev. R. B. Bulgin Will Preach His Farewell Sermon Next Sunday. Letters That Are Unclaimed at the Postoffice.

Directors Weber, Spencer, Kellam, Miller, McPeck and Costello responded to the call of the school board meeting, and with the full board present proceeded to business. The minutes of the previous meetings were read by Secretary Kellam, and upon motion to adopt same, Mr. McPeck objected to the parts relating to the fixing of the music teacher's salary.

A spirited debate followed, during which opinions were read from various authorities. The debate hinged on the facts as to whether three out of the six members of the board can legally elect the salary of a teacher. A motion to make it $65 per month was lost. A new motion was made by Mr. Miller to pay the music teacher $62.50. This motion was carried. Reports were then read from the various committees appointed, and Superintendent E. D. Edwards read a report of the standing of the schools. Secretary Kellam moved that Superintendent Edwards' report be received and placed on file. It was so ordered. It was ordered that some of the pupils from No. 6 school be removed to No. 1 school. The grant officer's report was read and accepted. Mr. Spencer read some examinations, which were accepted. A motion was made by Mr. McPeck that record books for the schools be procured, and it was so ordered by general consent of the board. Election of a teacher to take the place of Miss Besse Egan, who resigned last month, took place next. Miss Scott was elected, receiving the entire vote of the board. The board then considered the election of a teacher for the new school building on Throop street. Miss Flannelly was chosen.

OPENING OF THE FAIR.

Many comments were heard yesterday on all sides regarding the preparations which the Neptune Fire ladies had accomplished, and which served to make the opening of their fair in the Odd Fellows building, so auspicious and successful as it was. From 7 o'clock until 11 o'clock a pleased crowd surged to and fro around the prettily decorated booths, making the hall hum with their laughter and talk. The American band was constantly in evidence and rendered several selections during the evening. It was estimated that four hundred persons were in attendance, who were considerably amused by the Neptune minstrel club, organized for this event and who made their first appearance at this opening. The booths and those in charge are as follows: Fancy booth, Mrs. Thomas S. Smead; Misses Elsie Kravoc and Kate McMillan; pillow booth, Mrs. Theodore Weber, Misses Waffell and Crook; candy booth, Misses Anna Powell, Lucy Ellis, and Marie Webber; apron booth, Mrs. Daniel Powell; china booth, Mrs. David Brink; ice cream booth, Mrs. E. Swartz and Misses Annie Young, Marnie Harper, Jennie Seor, Bessie and Mamie Winters; fish pond, Charles Jenkins and David Parfrey. Tonight the Independent Hose company, No. 1 will furnish the program.

REV. R. B. BULGIN TO LEAVE.

Rev. R. B. Bulgin, pastor of the Christian church on Tripp avenue, will preach his farewell sermon to his congregation Sunday evening, October 5. This will come in the nature of a surprise to many of his friends as the gratifying success which has attended the reverend gentleman's work has caused many to believe him a permanent fixture in this place. During the past two years the church and Sunday school have doubled their members and unusual activity has been manifested under Mr. Bulgin's direction. It is with considerable regret that the congregation, and friends of Rev. Bulgin, see him leave to take up his field of labor in another section.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS.
